OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 15 October 1969

5X1	1. Alerted Larry McHugh, on the staff of the Joint Economic Committee, to the fact that our contributions to the Committee's Soviet study were forwarded to the Library of Congress last week. Mr. McHugh had not been advised of this by the Library and appreciated my call.
5X1	In view of his prior notice to us of a letter which the Secretary of Defense had received from the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy regarding the William Beecher article of 9 October, I advised Frank Hand, DOD Liaison, that the Agency had been contacted today by ACDA regarding a letter they had received from the Joint Committee concerning Beecher's article of 2 October. I told Hand that it was the 2 October article on which we had received an inquiry from the Joint Committee.
5X1	Left with Ed Braswell, on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, our paper showing the changes which would be made in various sections of the CIA Retire·	ment Act by our proposed Daniels/McGee type amendments.
•	ment Act by our proposed Bantols, we doe type seems 5X1	4. Briefed William Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, on Soyuz 6, 7, and 8. I also brought him up-to-date on the most recent information regarding Soviet missiles.
5X1	5. Returned the call of Olive Ray,
